

Job Opportunity: Teaching at an Indigenous School

The Apu Palamguwan Cultural Education Center (APC) is a Jesuit-led nonprofit organization working in education with and for indigenous communities. Its core program is basic education in several villages in Malaybalay, Bukidnon. The school implements a mother tongue-based multilingual curriculum that integrates cultural knowledge.

Qualifications:

1. Preferably with degree in education or sciences
2. Can speak Visayan and preferably can speak Binukid
3. Willing to live in a community setting for at least one year
4. Lumad background an advantage
5. Open to unlearn things learned and to learn new ways of doing things
6. Is organized and with a high degree of initiative

Location:

- Sitio Bendum, Brgy. Busdi, Malaybalay City, Bukidnon

Interested applicants may send their resume and transcript with cover letter to esschr@essc.org.ph.

Please apply as early as possible. Only short-listed applicants will be contacted.

Visit our site: apupalamguwancenter.essc.org.ph